International trade fair venues including Berlin have demonstrated that in-person events can take place again. Around the world, vaccination campaigns are gathering pace and making it possible to travel again and take part in trade fairs. For trade visitors and exhibitors the requirements for entering Germany have been eased. More information here: auma.de/en.

The Messe Berlin safety and hygiene concept established for this event offers additional security. Thus, you can now meet in person again at FRUIT LOGISTICA.

Information on the latest safety and hygiene measures that apply during the event can be found at fruitlogistica.com.
